KippsDeSanto & Co. Advises General Dynamics Advanced Information Systems, Inc. on the Sale of Its Advanced Systems Line of Business to MacDonald, Dettwiler and Associates Ltd.

KippsDeSanto & Co. is pleased to announce the sale of the Advanced Systems line of business (the "Company") of General Dynamics Advanced Information Systems, Inc. ("GDAIS") to MacDonald, Dettwiler and Associates Ltd. ("MDA") (TSX:MDA). The transaction affords new opportunities for MDA, a Canadian-based publicly traded company, to support additional surveillance and intelligence programs in the United States.

Based in Ypsilanti, Michigan, the Advanced Systems line of business is a leader in the design, development, and production of radar and other information sensors for the U.S. government. The Advanced Systems line of business is strategically positioned given a shifting focus toward strategic national security areas of interest that require advanced Intelligence, Surveillance, and Reconnaissance ("ISR") capabilities.

We believe this transaction demonstrates several key trends in the aerospace / defense and government technology solutions M&A environment:

- Continued trend of corporate divestitures as businesses of all sizes shape their portfolio to focus on the core
- Attractiveness of differentiated technology solutions in mission-critical markets (e.g., intelligence, C4ISR)
- Emphasis on entrenched and long-standing relationships with coveted IC customers

KippsDeSanto & Co. is an investment bank focused on delivering exceptional M&A and financing transaction results for leading aerospace / defense and government technology solutions companies. For more information on KippsDeSanto & Co., please visit www.kippsdesanto.com.

We welcome the opportunity to discuss how KippsDeSanto & Co. can help you achieve your strategic objectives.
